1 ENABLE AND EQUIP

A servant-hearted person with humility and a sure hope to help us navigate how to share the unchanging Good News of Jesus with the rapidly changing contemporary world. Someone who will enable us to tell out the Gospel and live it out in our daily lives.

A clear biblical thinker inspiring us to think intelligently and openly, as we seek to respond to the spiritual, ethical and ecological challenges of the modern world.

2 FOCUS ON YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

Someone who is culturally aware and able to communicate truth in a world with no firm foundations and help us to inspire the younger generations to engage with us.

Using experience and understanding, help us to improve how we reach out to this demographic in the community.

3 DEVELOP A HUB

A pastoral person who is able to reimagine how we use our halls complex, underpinning our desire to get out and become a hub for our community.

“...reimagine how we use our halls complex, underpinning our desire to get out and become a hub for our community.”

VISION STATEMENT

We are a people being transformed by the unconditional love of God; seeking to bless our community, and longing for others to experience the hope we have in Jesus.

Discussion

1. Thinking about the principles that have worked well with Morning Out. How can we, as a church, develop our engagement with the community in other areas?
2. Considering previous sessions of the Lent course, how can we make a difference as individuals?
